

Downtown development to be discussed

Rapid City residents will have opportunity Wednesday and Thursday to sound off on downtown business district development.

The Central Business District Beautification Task Force of the Chamber of Commerce has scheduled public forums at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday at 521 Seventh St.

To give people sharing common concerns to discuss business district development together, the city has been parceled into four sectors centered in the 600 block between Main and St. Joseph streets.

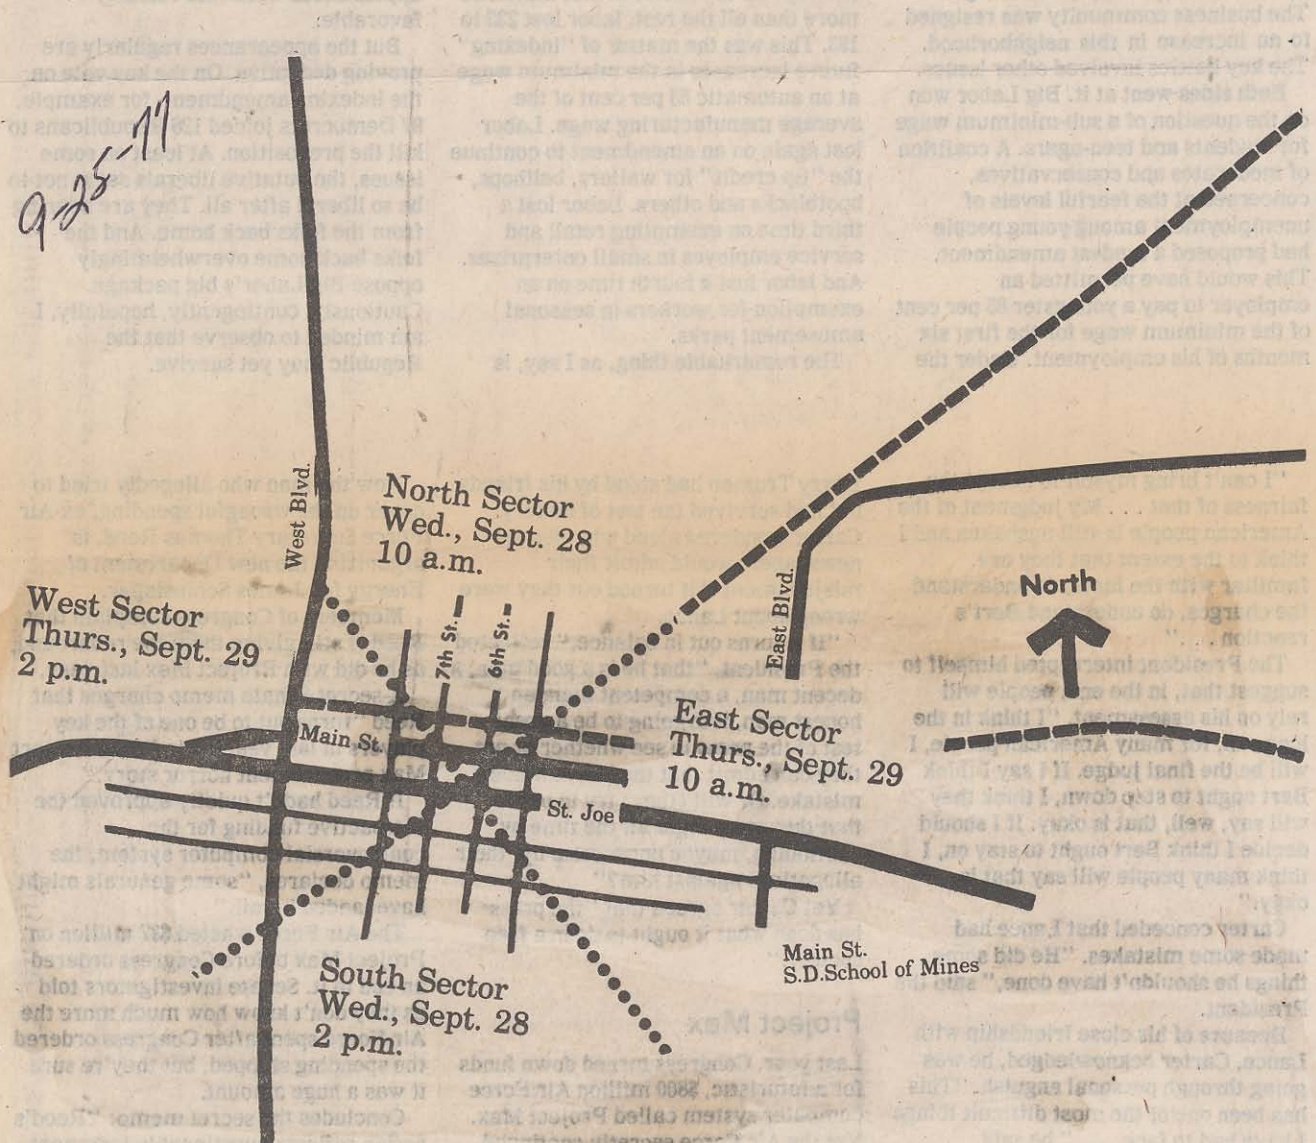

People from the north sector are asked to meet at 10 a.m. Wednesday and those from the south sector at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

East sector people are to meet at 10 a.m. Thursday and those from the west at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Anyone unable to attend the meeting for his sector should attend any of the others that fit his schedule.

Both property owners and renters are encouraged to participate in listing priorities for the downtown area and in filling out questionnaires to help the task force define major issues.
