3.24.030 Purpose of district.

Business Improvement District No. 1 is created for the purpose of funding a portion or all of the future proposed public activities, facilities and improvements along with the costs of acquisition, construction, maintenance, operation and repair of such improvements, facilities or activities:

The marketing and promotion of the City of Rapid City and its hotels and motels located within the district through the Rapid City Area Convention and Visitors Bureau.

3.24.040 Occupational tax imposed.

An occupational tax in the amount of Two Dollars ($2.00) per night shall be imposed upon transient guests based upon rooms rented by any of the above hotels, motels or lodging establishments. This occupation tax shall be fair, equitable and uniform as to class. No occupational tax may be imposed on any transient guest who has been offered a room by a lodging establishment on a complimentary basis whereby no fee or rent is charged for such room. This tax rate shall be subject to establishment and adjustment by the Rapid City Common Council by resolution in accordance with SDCL § 9-55-16.

3.24.050 Duty to account for complimentary rooms.

Each hotel, motel or lodging establishment shall account for complimentary rooms which are also subject to audit by the City Finance Officer with such records to show the basis for offering such room on a complimentary basis.

3.24.060 Computation and collection of occupational tax.

The Rapid City Finance Officer is authorized and directed to determine and compute the tax in accordance with this ordinance. The occupational tax assessed pursuant to the terms of this ordinance shall be remitted by the 20th day of each month to the Rapid City Finance Officer, with the remittance to be for the previous calendar month's tax collections. The City Finance Officer or any person or firm contracted by the City Finance Officer shall be entitled to audit the books, ledgers, or franchise reports of any hotel, motel or lodging establishment subject to the terms of this ordinance, including the right to inspect daily reports of such hotels and motels so as to ensure that the occupancy tax assessed by this ordinance is being properly remitted to the City of Rapid City. The City Finance Officer shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief against any hotel, motel or lodging establishment which does not remit the proper amount of tax monies when due, which relief may be in the form of an action requiring the offending hotel or motel owner to allow entry upon their property and access to their records, computers, or books so as to verify that the hotel, motel or lodging establishment is remitting all monies it collects pursuant to this ordinance and the laws of the State of South Dakota. Each hotel, motel or lodging establishment subject to this ordinance shall keep accurate records of amounts collected from transient guests for review by the City Finance Officer or its designee, pursuant to this ordinance.

3.24.070 Statement required along with occupational tax payment.

Any business governed by this ordinance shall sign a sworn statement to be submitted along with the remittance of any tax imposed by this ordinance on or before the 20th day of each month stating as follows:

I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the above accounting of rooms rented is accurate and the tax payment made herein is accurate to the best of my knowledge according to my business records.

Signed _____ Dated _____
Title _____

3.24.080 Penalties for failure to pay occupational tax.

All remittances of occupancy tax collected pursuant to this ordinance shall be due and received in the office of the City of Rapid City Finance Officer on or before the 20th day of the month following the month for which the occupancy tax remittances are due. All amounts that are not received on or before the 20th day of the month will be charged a late fee in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the total amount due. Failure to pay such tax shall also constitute a violation of this ordinance which may be punishable by a fine, not to exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200). Each day that the payment is overdue shall constitute a separate offense. Any unpaid balance under this ordinance shall constitute a lien upon the property owned by the business or user of space being taxed and shall become a lien against and shall run with the property and may be enforced and collected in the same manner as other unpaid real property taxes and assessments. The Rapid City Finance Officer shall certify all unpaid amounts or balances to the county treasurer for collection in the same manner as general property taxes are collected. Further, the City of Rapid City shall have the ability to deny the issuance of any permits or licenses or any renewals thereof to any business or premise that fails to conform to the provisions of this ordinance, including, but not limited to, building permits, malt beverage licenses, and liquor licenses. Nothing within the body of this ordinance shall be construed as limiting any other rights which the City of Rapid City has, or may pursue in seeking collection of monies received but not paid under the terms of this ordinance. In the event that this tax becomes subject to supervision by the State of South Dakota through the State's Department of Revenue, any rights which City of Rapid City has herein shall be deemed cumulative to any powers which inure to the benefit of the State.

3.24.090 Payment of fees.

In the event of any civil or criminal action being filed seeking collection of any delinquent assessments, the offending hotel, motel or lodging establishment shall be responsible for and pay all attorney's fees and costs incurred by the City of Rapid City in seeking payment under the terms of this ordinance.

3.24.100 Costs incurred by City in administering occupational tax.

All costs incurred by the City of Rapid City or the City Finance Officer pursuant to this ordinance shall be paid from occupancy taxes collected under this ordinance.

3.24.110 Payment of occupational tax proceeds to Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Once the occupational tax has been collected, the City Finance Office shall subtract its administrative costs and forward the remaining balance to the Rapid City Convention and Visitors Bureau. The Convention and Visitors Bureau will then use the proceeds to market and promote the City of Rapid City and the hotels within the district.

3.24.111 Severability.

Should any section, clause or provision of this ordinance be declared by the courts to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or any part thereof, other than the part declared to be invalid.
