PRESENTATION
David Lust gave a presentation on the Local Affordable Housing Initiative. He was at the meeting on behalf of the Black Hills Area Community Foundation and the Rapid City Strategic Housing Trust Fund. He gave statistics on affordable housing and where Rapid City sits amongst those statistics. The idea of a local housing trust fund is usually a department within a municipality that is devoted to workforce housing issues, maintaining inventory, creation of new inventory, remodels, and upkeep of those types of things. Lust explained the foundation was created in order to keep city government mostly out of the process and allow the foundation to tap into charitable dollars and other resources. Lust did explain that Ken Young and Sarah Hanzel would be part of the committee on behalf of the city. The council voiced favorable comments on the initiative.

GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENT
Rachel Caesar spoke in support of the city council members who wanted the mask mandate. Chuck Henrie encouraged citizens to run for council if they wanted things to change. Tonchi Weaver spoke regarding due process. She would like the attorney’s office to address the 92 plus one complaints they turned over more than two weeks ago.
