

DISPLAYS AND ~~EVENTS~~-ART POLICY

~~June 14, 2021~~ August 8, 2022

Displays, publications, and ~~art and events~~ within the library will be planned and scheduled to promote library collections and services, as determined by library staff. All displays and publications must be approved by the Public Relations Coordinator, ~~Administrative Coordinator,~~ the Library Director or their designee, and will be scheduled based upon library needs and availability of display space. Community organizations using meeting rooms must keep signs and publications in their reserved meeting room during time of use. ~~Persons loaning items for display will be required to complete a Waiver of Liability.~~

The library periodically displays loaned artworks in the library facilities; those artworks are subject to the same selection and approval process as noted above. Although some of these works may be for sale by the artists, no prices will be displayed while on display. Library staff may provide contact information for any artist, but will not interact further in facilitating any sales.

Persons loaning items for display will be required to complete a Waiver of Liability.
