The billboard is a large, rectangular sign with a blue border and a perforated metal back. It is supported by four blue posts. The sign is divided into several sections. On the left, a dark brown rectangle contains the text 'HISTORIC FREIGHT HOUSE' in white, with 'GRILL & TAP HOUSE' in smaller white text below it. To the right of this is a circular logo for 'ODEN BREWING CO.' with a red and white design. Further right, the text 'INDIA PALE ALE' is written in a small, serif font above the large, stylized letters 'IPA'. Below 'IPA' is a black silhouette of a bull rearing up on its hind legs. At the bottom of the sign, a white banner with a red border contains the text '70 BEERS ON TAP' in large, bold, red letters. The billboard is set against a clear blue sky. In the background, there are green trees, a white fence, and a road with several cars parked. A tall street lamp is visible on the right side of the image.
