AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND PROVISIONS CONCERNING PERMITTING FOR PARADES AND SPECIAL EVENTS BY AMENDING CHAPTER 12.20 OF THE RAPID CITY MUNICIPAL CODE

WHEREAS, the City of Rapid City has adopted provisions concerning special events and parades in Chapter 12.20 of the Rapid City Municipal Code; and

WHEREAS, over the past year the Rapid City Police Department, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and other City staff have been cooperating to clarify procedures for special event permits and to consolidate relevant information for citizens into a Special Event Handbook; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 12.20 provides that the Chief of Police or his/her designee shall allow special events and parades within City limits; and

WHEREAS, the City of Rapid City believes that the Department of Parks and Recreation is the appropriate body to issue special event permits within public parks; and

WHEREAS, currently there is no fee for parade or special event permits issued by the City; and

WHEREAS, to partially recoup City costs for these events, the City wishes to amend the ordinance to authorize permit fees for parades and special events held in parks; and

WHEREAS, the City wishes to codify the processes for staff to evaluate special event and parade permit applications, to clarify the bases for denial of a permit application, and to require insurance for parades and special events; and

WHEREAS, the City of Rapid City believes it to be in the best interest of the health, safety, and general welfare of its citizens to amend the provisions in Chapter 12.20 concerning parades and special events.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the City of Rapid City that Chapter 12.20 of the Rapid City Municipal Code is hereby amended to read in its entirety as follows:

12.20.010 Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

A. SPECIAL EVENT. Any planned assembly, block party, demonstration, rally, or gathering of a group of 40 or more persons, animals, vehicles, or a combination thereof, in a public space that:

1. Has a common purpose, design or goal, upon any public street, sidewalk, alley or other public thoroughfare, and
   a. Which assembly substantially inhibits the usual flow of pedestrians or vehicular travel on public streets; or
   b. Which involves a temporary and exclusive use of a public space occupies any public area, other than a parade; or
   c. Involves a substantial deviation from the public space’s current use.

2. Special events do not include the following:
   a. Parades;
   b. The use of public space by governmental agencies acting within the scope of their authority;
   c. Funeral processions; or
   d. Picnics or gatherings in reserved spaces within public parks which are reserved in advance through the Parks and Recreation Department.

B. PARADE. Any scheduled walk, demonstration, procession, march or motorcade consisting of persons, animals, vehicles, or a combination thereof having a common purpose, design, designation or goal, upon any public street, sidewalk, alley, or other public thoroughfare, which does not comply with normal and usual traffic regulations and controls.

12.20.020 Permit—Required—Application.
A. No person shall conduct, manage or participate in any parade or special event unless a permit has been issued in accordance with this Chapter. If a permit is issued, no person shall conduct, manage or participate in any parade or special event which is in violation of the terms or conditions of the permit. The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to or affect funeral processions.

B. A permit must be applied for in writing on a form obtained from the Police Department of Parks and Recreation and shall be filed at least 45 days prior to the commencement of any parade or special event, unless an exception to the deadline is granted by the City or as provided in Section D. Late applications may be accepted at the discretion of the Police Chief Director of Parks and Recreation or his or her designee under unusual circumstances beyond the control of the applicant. The application shall set forth the following information:

1. Name, address and telephone number of any individual, group, association, firm or corporation requesting the permit, and the applicable title or office of the person so applying;

2. The name, address and telephone number of the person(s) responsible for the organization, coordination and conduct of the proposed activity;

3. Time and date of commencement and termination of the proposed activity;

4. A detailed narrative and timeline, and its nature and purpose of the parade or special event, including a description of all activities, schedule of events, and all other pertinent information;

5. The location, assembly area and/or route; A detailed event site plan mapping the physical areas for the event;

6. The anticipated maximum number of persons, vehicles, bands, floats and other units of persons, horses or other animals to participate; and

7. Such other reasonably relevant information as the Police Chief Director of Parks and Recreation or other City staff may request for investigation of the application.

C. The applicant shall submit nonrefundable permit fee(s) to be set by resolution of the Common Council with the application. Additional fees approved by resolution of the Common Council may also be required. If the Director of Parks and Recreation, the Chief of Police, or their designees determine that the event requires or utilizes City resources beyond what is reasonable for a parade or special event, staff may deny the permit or may charge applicant additional fees equivalent to the City’s cost to provide the resources. Such fees may include City cost to provide barricades, police presence, sanitation, waste removal, picnic tables, etc. and may be billed before the permit is issued or after the parade or special event occurs.

D. Demonstrations as defined below may be issued a special event or parade permit, as applicable. The Director of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of Police or their designee may consider an application that is filed after the filing deadline if there is sufficient time to process.
and investigate the permit application and to obtain City services for the event and if the circumstance that gave rise to the event application did not reasonably allow the applicant apply within the time prescribed in Section B. A demonstration under this Section is defined a parade or special event which involves a rally, picketing, speechmaking, march, vigil, religious service, or similar gathering that primarily involves the communication or expression of opinions, grievances, or personal views.

12.20.030 Permit—Issuance—Required findings.

A. Special Event and Parade Permit Considerations. The City officials reviewing all permit applications shall evaluate the following considerations in deciding on each application:

1. Whether the event promotes the community as a whole;
2. Whether the event provides positive civic and economic benefit;
3. The impact upon neighboring business and properties;
4. The frequency of closures of streets/public spaces for parades and special events;
5. Other events or activities that are permitted at the same time and/or location;
6. The applicant’s conduct and compliance in sponsoring prior events;
7. The health, safety, and public welfare of event participants and the impact of the event on the health, safety, and public welfare of all citizens;
8. If applicable, whether the applicant conformed to all permit requirements and the provisions in this Chapter in holding any previous parades or special events; and
9. The financial and practical ability of the applicant to conduct the proposed parade or special event in conformance with the provisions of the permit and this Chapter.

AB. Parade Permit.

1. The Chief of Police or his or her designee shall may issue a parade permit as provided for herein when, after evaluating consideration of the application, and from such other information as may otherwise be obtained, and the considerations in Section A, he or she finds that
