MINIMAL AMENDMENT PROCEDURE FOR A PLANNED DEVELOPMENT OVERLAY OR CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT

There is no fee for a Minor Amendment to a Conditional Use Permit

Information and actions required of the Petitioner:

1. The applicant meets with Department of Community Development staff to discuss the proposal.
2. A completed application signed by the owner of record including the project name, legal description, and contact information for the land owner, developer and design professional(s). The application shall include:
 - a. A vicinity map of the general area showing the boundaries of the property of the planned development request;
 - b. A site plan drawn at a suitable scale (additional copies may be required for a site plan larger than 11 inches by 17 inches);
 - d. A written statement describing the proposed amendment and providing justification for the amendment; and,
 - e. Other information as needed in order to meet City, County, State and Federal rules and regulations.

NOTE: Contact Department of Community Development with questions on sample site plan.

Procedure:

1. Upon receipt of the required application and supporting information, Department of Community Development staff will route the information to all affected Departments and Agencies.

2. A Minimal Amendment may be approved administratively by the Director of Department of Community Development if it complies with Section 17.17.50.050.G of the Rapid City Municipal Code. If the Minor Amendment is does not comply, the Director of Department of Community Development shall deny the request. If denied, the petitioner may submit a Major Amendment to a Planned Development application to the City for review and approval by the Planning Commission pursuant to Section 17.50.050.F of the Rapid City Municipal Code.
